THE NEW GROUP

At the 2011 Branch AGM in June it was decided to disband the Branch and inaugurate a new non-RSCDS dance group. This group to be called The Bedford Scottish Dance Group with the same aims as that of the RSCDS and continue with our Charity status. This has already been arranged. It is hoped that the new group will become affiliated to the RSCDS. It is hoped that you, existing RSCDS members and previous members, will join the new group but if you wish to continue your RSCDS membership as well, then you can do this by joining another branch, e.g. the Milton Keynes branch. (contact Jan Jones on 01908 378730 she will be happy to oblige).

The group will continue the existing dance programme with dances at Oakley, the Ceilidh in January and a ball next May. It will also continue the monthly Advanced and Highland classes. However the immediate aim of the group will be to increase membership. To assist in this, the first year's membership will be free and members will have free admittance to the Oakley dances. At the Bedford "Dance4All" events the Scottish taster sessions have been very popular but they have been mainly Ceilidh type dances rather than the slightly more difficult country dances. Hence when new people came to the country-dance classes they did not get what they expected and left. The group hopes to start a Beginners Scottish Ceilidh Dance class in Bedford if we can find a suitable venue and teacher. The aim will be to graduate from Ceilidh to country dances. We need new blood into the group!

The committee will do it's best to get the new group up and running and are looking for new members to the group and next year a new committee.

Hope you will join us in this enterprise. Contact Keith or Alex for membership.

George Hogg Chairman

LYNN'S BIRTHDAY

A great celebration of Lynn's 50th birthday was held on 3rd September in Willingham Village Hall which was packed with friends and family. A magnificent supper was provided by Lynn, her Mum and friends and was followed by dancing and various entertainments, including a "mass fling" performed by any of us who thought we ought to be able to do it! John directed operations and kept us in order and a great evening was had by all of us.

PRESIDENT'S EVENING

The first demonstration event for the new group took place at the annual President's Evening of the local Scots' Society of St Andrew at Bromham Village Hall on September 10th. The Highland team had prepared a new (to them) dance, "Honour the Piper". Donald Reid kindly agreed to pipe and stood on a small pedestal while eight dancers circled around him. The ladies team put on a polished performance of "Pas de Trois for the Misses Glennie". Three country dances were also performed, Shiftin' Bobbins, the Wind on Loch Fyne and Spiffin'. George was again Master of Ceremonies and led everyone through a variety of ceilidh dances nobly assisted by Peter Scatterty on his accordion.
