NEW YEAR CEILIDH

I'm happy to report that the Ceilidh was as successful and enjoyable as usual. We're sorry that not everyone who wanted tickets got them due to the number restriction and the fact that they sell out quickly. We will try to advertise them more widely next year so that everyone gets a chance.

Our thanks go, as always, to George and Peter Scatterty and to all the people who turned up and helped with the organization – it was a great evening.

p.s. Did anyone leave an 8 inch square, bright yellow Tupperware lid behind? Helen would like to return it!

DEMONSTRATION

It's not often that the team gets invited to an event in a pub but this did happen recently, at the Fox and Hounds in Goldington Road. The occasion was a Burn`s Night celebration held by the Bedford Lions Club and turned out to be a fairly riotous and thoroughly enjoyable evening. The floor was something of a hazard as it was part wood and part carpet but fortunately there were no accidents.

Most of the programme was ceilidh dancing with which the Lions joined in enthusiastically, plus a few demos in between.

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves and George got a `phone call the next day expressing their appreciation.
