NEW YEAR CEILIDH

The Ceilidh was back in its usual spot of the first Saturday in the New Year and proved as popular as ever, almost all tickets being sold well in advance. There were just enough people there to fill the dance floor without overcrowding it.

As always Peter Scatterty's music was great to dance to and George kept us going in the right direction. The demonstration team, fielding a magnificent five couples, gave us a breather at intervals with several immaculately performed dances.

Many thanks to all those who contributed to the success of the evening.
