ANNUAL BALL

Once again our recently held Annual Ball proved a thoroughly enjoyable evening. The number attending was a little down on last year but quite sufficient to fill the hall and supper room comfortably. The band, which was Robert Whitehead and Danelaw, was a man short due to illness but the two who came were very good and we didn't notice any deficiency.

The catering worked well again and we are very appreciative of the effort put in by Helen and her helpers. Also thanks to those who helped set up and dismantle.

As Danelaw are unable to play for us next year the band will be Alan Ross from Falkirk and we look forward to an equally enjoyable event.
